WHAT IS MARRIAGE & FAMILY THERAPY?

The Master of Arts Marriage and Family Therapy (MAMFT) degree, is tailored for those feeling called by God to bring hope and healing, offers a comprehensive blend of psychological theories and biblical principles. With guidance from the Holy Spirit, students not only fulfill the requirements for national licensure but also gain the skills necessary for diverse counseling careers, including private practice, hospital settings, and various counseling roles.

PRACTICUM EXPERIENCE

TKU has partnerships with local counselors in private practice, hospitals, and local church counseling centers, as well as the department for student-presented practicum opportunities.

The MAMFT program is fully-accredited by TRACS and ABHE, both certified by the Department of Education. These accreditations grant us the privilege of preparing students for state licensure and ultimately private practice.

"To help other people travel in their healing, you need to come from a healthy place in your relationship with Jesus. This program helps you partner with the Holy Spirit to help other people, but it focuses on your healing and relationship with Christ too."
